Mrs. Sallie Walsh entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E.
Wright for dinner Sunday. Misses Ethel and Helen, wife of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, were married Jan. 5. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Hansford Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Abbott, of College Creek, visited the 14th-15th parents of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Mollie Mc-Clanahan and Josie Walsh. An enjoyable time was had and Miss Sallie was a delightful hostess.

Miss Bernice Davis entertained for dinner on Jan. 3rd. Misses Evelyn Swango, Edna Spurlock, Edna Arnett, Sallie Walsh, Eva Spurlock, Mrs. C.

"Sports" Skills Beddoes.

E. J. Bowles has sold his stock of groceries to J. W. Fannin and they are now managing the stock. Mr. Fannin will continue the business. We did not learn what Mr. Bowles intended to do or whether or not he would go into business here again.

Building Completed.

Judge Sebastian's new business house on Main street has been completed and most of the tenants moved in. The painters and decorators are putting a few finishing touches on, but everything is ready for occupancy. Methia and Williams and Nickel, Arnett and Prater, law firm, have moved to the offices upstairs, and Judge Sebastian is putting in a stock of groceries downstairs.
D. R. Weston will occupy the other first floor room with a stock of gent's furnishings. The movie plant in the basement is complete with the exception of the seats which are expected each day now.

Fallen Leaf Night.

The parsonage of the Church of Christ at Hamilton, was the scene of a quiet wedding ceremony at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning in which Miss Minnie Paulovicz, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Mari Davis, became the bride of Collier Ross, both of this place.

The bride's outfit carried out this person's favorite design in her blue cretonne dress with a hat of the same color, and black slippers, she was a picture of loveliness in her wedding attire which was very becoming and girlish.

The bride has made her home with her aunt and uncle Matt Davis, of Pearl street, in this city, for the past nine months, and has won the respect and admiration of all who knew her.

Mr. Ross is the only son of Mrs.
Anna Ross, of this city. He is an employee of the American Roller Mill Company and is known as a fine young man who is greatly liked by a host of friends here.

After a short trip they will make their home with the groom's mother at 705 Hill street—Middletown (O.) News Signal.

Business.

L. H. Reed of West Liberty, has contracted with Elmer Hammens to sell his timber, on Shop branch, into timber and lumber, and with J. L. Farrak to put timber to mill and lumber and ties to Benoy.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H.
F. Williams is said to be seriously ill.
Mrs. T. J. Peircey was on the sick list the past two weeks.

Several from Dingus were at Robt.
Kennard's sale of Logville last Saturday. Mr. Kennard will move to Paintsville.

Mrs. Amanda Rigby, of Jephtha, is visiting relatives here.

J. T. Blevins has moved to the property vacated by E. C. Blevins. His son, Dewey, occupies his old home.

Dewey and Addie Ferguson, of Relief, made a raid in this section the 7th inst. and captured two young ladies for their brides. Dewey was wedded to Miss Esty Bolin, of Silver Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L.
Bolin, Eli. I. P. Coffey officiating; Addie and Miss Blanche Ferguson, daughter of the writer, were united by Eli.
J. K. Patrick. Dinner was served for the happy couple and a number of friends at the home of

R. H. FERGUSON.

RELIEF.

Jay and Carrie Pyffe were the guests of Harriet and Maxine Brown Sunday.

Mr. Charlie Skaggs, of Blaine, and Miss Celia Ferguson, of Relief, were married Jan. 5. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Harold Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Abbott, of College Creek, visited the 14th-15th parents
of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miller, Mollie Mc-Clanahan and Josie Walsh. An enjoyable time was had and Miss Sal-

VIOLET.

Mrs. Helen Anderson died at her home at six P. M. Sunday, January 8, 1922. She was sixty years of age and had been in poor health for the past two years, during that time she was a constant sufferer from stomach and heart trouble.

She was well known here and the news of her death was heard with much sorrow by her many friends. She was a devout Christian mother, having been a member of the Christian survived by five children, Mrs. R. R.
Taubee, of Trilby, Mrs. A. J. Phillips Misses Edna and Irene Anderson and Sammie Anderson, of this place.

Misses Pearl and Myrtle Ross, of Ham Green, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. J. N. Anderson.

Miss Anna Lucy spent last week with her sister, Mrs. William Lindon of Gilmore.

O. E. Hubbard, a prominent traveling salesman, of Lenox, was here last week.

Miss Monroe Nickell, of Lexington, was here on business last week.

Miss America May has been on the sick list for some time and her many friends fear that her conditions are serious. She is a very lovable girl and we hope she will recover.

Miss Taubee, of Salem, was a very pleasant visitor here Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Lacy, who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving slowly and her many friends hope she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson and family, of Herald, visited Mr. and Mrs.

J. H. Stricklin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Lacy are the proud parents of a nine pound boy, born December 24th. Mother and baby are both doing nicely and Mr. Lacy is wearing a broad smile.

have blood poison from an abscessed tooth, was taken to the hospital Saturday.

Miss Anna Williams

were married at her home Jan. 9, by Rev. J. M. Ousey. The bride is one of White Oak's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies. The groom is an industrious young man of good habits. They many friends with them a long and prosperous life.

A. D. Lacy spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Bill Prater.

Herbert Hammens was here Monday.

John G. Adams made a business trip to White Oak Saturday.

The following were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Blane Sunday:

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blane and child,

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Blane and child,

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Blane and child,

John Arnett.
